The Rooted & Growing Bible reading plan is a chronological, 52-week, 5 days/week reading plan that covers a comprehensive portion of the Old Testament, and nearly every chapter of the New Testament.

Why are there missing chapters in the reading plan?

We believe that having a practical plan that works for your season of life is one of the most important keys to establishing a consistent quiet time. As busy moms, we love the format of two chapters per day, five days per week because it leaves plenty of time for catch-up when life happens!

While, yes, we believe that the entire Bible is God-breathed and useful for equipping believers (2 Timothy 3:16-17), our Rooted and Growing Bible reading plan highlights foundational passages of Scripture. Our goal is to lead women to know and trust God more deeply through His Word, by better understanding the big picture of the Gospel.

The majority of the Old Testament passages not included fall in one of these categories:

1. They are lists of numbers, genealogical records, or requirements for offerings and purification (laws).
2. They are duplicate passages, already covered in a previous day's reading
3. They are Psalms or Proverbs. While there are a few key chapters included, the majority are not, simply because these are books we tend to naturally gravitate to when reading God's Word. We encourage you to incorporate a chapter or two from these books into your weekly routine, on the weekend, or when you're looking for additional reading.

Our community begins reading the plan together each September, however you can start at any time that works for your schedule! If you choose to study along, be sure to subscribe to our weekly emails for additional free resources. You can also join one of our online community groups for ongoing accountability, care, and connection. You can jump in with us at any point, however if you want to start from Genesis, visit www.rootedmoms.com/grow to see when our new year will begin.

How we recommend that you approach your Bible study:

1. Pray for Holy Spirit to open your eyes and ears to what He longs to teach you today.
2. Read or listen through the assigned passage of Scripture, highlighting any words or phrases that stick out to you along the way.
3. Write down a summary of what you read, and any notes about your observations.
4. Dig deeper into any intriguing or confusing passages, using our FREE journaling guide and other resources.
5. Identify your takeaway. What is Holy Spirit leading you to do, based on what you read today?
6. Spend time talking to Jesus, thanking Him in response to what you read, and sharing anything that is on your heart today.

Rooted Moms is a non-profit non-denominational Christian ministry that exists to help moms thrive in every season of life by becoming rooted in Christ , growing in God's Word, and gathering in life-giving community.

Our volunteer-led operations team is made up of moms who desire to share what we've experienced— the life-changing power of being rooted in Jesus. We provide free resources, community, and encouragement that help moms grow in their relationship with Christ, and more fully experience a life of fulfillment and freedom in Him.
